TFL BUS DISCRIMINATION

Appeal For Witnesses

- Visibly Jewish people being denied entry to buses

Shomrim has received multiple reports of discrimination on buses - visibly Jewish people including children being denied entry to buses.

What to do if you experience discrimination:

- Note the bus number (e.g. 254, 253)
- Record the bus stop code (e.g. SW, SC)
- Get bus's number plate (e.g. LTZ 1888)

Why reporting matters:

- TFL has suspended drivers in three reported incidents. Your report can lead to action.
- Reporting every incident is crucial, even if you think it might not lead to change.

Together, we can work towards safer, fairer public transport for all. Report incidents to Shomrim so we can take action.

Dear Readers

I was deeply pained to read the letter last week of the family stranded outside in the rain, with their belongings. Whilst people say there may 'another side' such behaviour can never be condoned and carried out without explicit daas Torah approval. It reminded me of a well-known story of the Chofetz Chaim where there was unfortunately a heimishe person attacked by a savage dog, and the Chofetz Chaim was observing the scene murmuring '20 years', when questioned, he explained that for 20 years he was waiting to see justice meted out, as this victim had thrown a hapless widow and children out of her flat due to lack of being able to pay her rent due, and the Chofetz Chaim said he knew with conviction that Hashem will ensure fitting retribution for the villain, as it says יהיה כי יצעק אלי – know there is Someone Up There listening, making cheshbonos and even though we don't see, we live in a world of hester, Hashem is watching and will right the wrongs, even if only in the next world or in future generations.

In a similar vein, I do not condone people living in other people's houses when they have been begged to move on numerous occasions, where the homeowner is struggling in a small flat and because they on principle won't call bailiffs, they are exploited by fellow heimishe yidden who comfortable reside in yenem' s property. They are also committing a wrong deed and will also be held accountable by the One Above...

May Hashem help all those looking for shelter find a spacious, affordable roof over their head and may we know of no more pain and be zoche to the infinite light bekorov.

Mrs S H

Dear Readers

Many people have recently received notice that their Universal Credit payments have stopped, with a message to call them within a month.

I got this message last week and I called them on Thursday afternoon. They said that someone would call me back by the end of the next working day. They called me when it was already Shabbos, and sent me a message saying that they'll try calling me once more, after which my claim will be closed and I'll have to pay back any money that I owe.

Therefore, if you receive such a message, try calling them on a Monday or a Tuesday only, and stay near your phone when you're expecting the call.

Hatzlocho.

Dear Your Write Lines

We wanted to make your readers aware of the following:

We had booked two flights, a few weeks ago, to EY for January with budget airline easyjet. The flight was subsequently cancelled by the airline for logistical reasons. Easyjet refunded us for the cancelled flights, and we subsequently re-booked with another airline, paying more for the new tickets.

We then heard from a relative that because Easyjet had cancelled our original tickets (and it was not for disruption caused by things like airport or air traffic control employee strikes, bad weather or other "extraordinary circumstances"), they were responsible for paying our extra ticket costs. We figured it was worth a try, and put in a claim via the easyjet website. Within a few days received a refund of the difference, under the category 'Replacement Transport to your destination'. This means that we paid no more than the original price of the easyjet tickets (to fly with a more comfortable airline), and were not left out of pocket.

We hope this is of help to any readers who may find themselves in a similar situation.

Dear Bnois Yisroel

I'm asking you from the depth of my heart, I'm working in a office and I receive many emails a day and there are singles (b"n most don't have this problem) who have on their profile a picture them.

Please please change it because it irritates me terribly and no filter can cover it.

May Hashem repay you with all brochos.

Thanks!
