Dear Readers

Hello, I'm a mother with three young girls who walk to Beis Yaakov on Amhurst Park every Shabbos afternoon. I really want to say thank you to the Shomrim Shabbos Patrol. They have been around every Shabbos since October 7th, and knowing they are close by makes us feel a lot safer.

It is comforting to see the Shomrim car patrolling the area, especially along Amhurst Park down to Stamford Hill Junction when the girls are walking to and from Beis Yaakov. Just knowing someone is keeping an eye out is very reassuring.

We are so grateful to the Shomrim Shabbos Patrol for being around. It's a big help to us parents and our children.

Thank you from a grateful mother.

Many thanks.

Dear Readers

I am responding to the letter from Families S, F, and R. As members of the Heimishe Kehilla, we share a strong desire to assist others in a manner consistent with our principles. Fortunately, our communities are supported by dedicated Rabbonim and Askonim who tirelessly contribute to helping those in need. It is essential, however, to approach assistance in a manner that aligns with moral, legal and Halachie principles.

When a tenant enters a tenancy, they are residing in the property of another individual and are obligated both legally and Halachically to adhere to the terms outlined in the contract. The purpose of such agreements is to establish clear guidelines for the actions permissible for each party involved. In the case of landlords and tenants, the tenant has willingly and formally committed to the landlord, agreeing that when the landlord requires the property back, they will receive due legal notice, and upon the specified time, the tenant will vacate.

Implying that the landlord has acted improperly is unjust. While it may be tempting to categorise the landlord as the perceived stronger party and the tenant as the perceived weaker party, it is crucial to recognise the existence of established laws and regulations to which she herself had signed up to.

Creating an attitude that landlords should deviate from legally binding agreements in favor of a subjective moral code would have adverse consequences. Such an approach could deter landlords from renting their properties within our communities. I encourage both you and the Askonim to continue assisting individuals facing similar situations but to do so in a manner that respects and upholds the existing legal and ethical framework by helping them in a timely manner to find somewhere else to live that suits their needs.

Dear Readers

There is a current Childhood Immunisations Awareness campaign. Vaccine levels in London have dropped below 95% which is insufficient to stop infections spreading.

There is a real risk of a measles outbreak Ch"V in our community.

The recent Whooping Cough outbreak in the Charedi community is an example of what can happen. Numerous babies were hospitalised and whole families affected. The outbreak is now over only because of awareness and appropriate precautions taken.

Please read the letter your child is due bring home from school in order to understand this campaign.

Concerns should be discussed with GPs or other health professionals. There are Sunday clinics at Spring Hill and Stamford Hill Group practices, to accommodate demand.

Protect yourselves, your families, and our community.

Kind regards Mrs G Rottenberg

Dear Readers

Help others and help yourself!

As readers are surely aware, Hackney Council has introduced a scheme called 'School Streets' which makes it illegal for drivers to access a number of busy local roads from 8.30-9.3 a.m. and 3-4pm, and issues fines of £65 to anyone who drives through.

Unfortunately, the signage installed by Hackney Council is hardly noticeable to drivers and many members of the local החלה have been fined many times over, as it is easy to forget about this scheme for people who are used to using these routes regularly, It is especially hard to remember on any out of the normal routine day like "ערב שבת / ערב יו"ט אחול המועד/פורים etc.

Local residents have now begun a new scheme to erect large and noticeable warning signs to drivers, with flashing lights (during School Streets hours), to ensure that people do not mistakenly drive through School Streets.

This scheme has already started and the sign at the corner of Heathland Road and Fairholt Road has been a tremendous success and is being greatly appreciated by all drivers.

We would like to erect additional signs like this for other locations as well, but we have not yet been able to install them due to a lack of funding.

If you are interested in a warning sign for a school street in your area, if you would like to help the community and yourself by sponsoring the costs involved, or if you have comments, suggestions, etc. please contact us at: kidssafetyonschoolroads@gmail.com

Every Request – Fulfilled!

"I cannot thank Hashem enough," tells a woman, as she shares the heartwarming developments in her life. "From the day I signed up with Tehillim Kollel, I've been showered with so much chesed from Above...

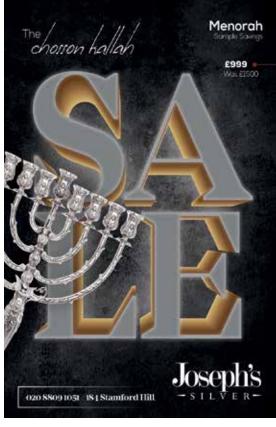

"It began with my daughter, a talented girl who suddenly found it difficult to keep upbeat. She seemed to be struggling with depression, and every day posed a new challenge. Soon after I gave in her name so the talmidei chachamim at Tehillim Kollel would daven for her daily, we found a shaliach from Shamayim to help her. Believe it or not, she just became a kallah!

"I also have a son, a sweet bachur, who began slipping away from Yiddishkeit. To our dismay, he was on the verge of dropping everything and leaving our warm home. Baruch Hashem, in the zechus of your heartfelt tefillos, today he's learning in one of the chashuve yeshivos in Eretz Visrael."

The chain of yeshuos was just going on and on, the woman explains. "My husband also had his turn, when his boss approached him and unexpectedly offered him a beautiful raise in addition to his weekly paycheck."

She concludes in an overjoyed tone filled with gratitude, "Tell the bnei Torah that their koach is very great up in Shamayim, and that every single pasuk of Tehillim that they recite brings more and more yeshuos for us all!"
