Learn to understand your child using the evidence-based Solihull Approach with the Torah perspective.

Topics include: Behaviour management, ruptures in parent-child relationships, anger, sleep and other life-transforming ideas.

See real change. Experience a happier, calmer and understanding atmosphere at home.

"This course is crucial for every parent, it can make such a difference for you and your child from the start."

"I only took this course because it was free, but it was worth millions!"

Mishon would like to applaud
our youngest volunteer

RUCHY FRIEDLANDER

on her outstanding dedication & success in raising

£15,075 over Purim

where EVERY PENNY goes to local families
YOUR help makes the difference between a joyous or deprived Yom Tov
for over 300 local families

We'd also like to thank your devoted parents whose commitment to every mitzva is done
so graciously and WHOLEHEARTEDLY!

Mr and Mrs Moishy
Friedlander

you are the cornerstone of unparelled tzsedoka and chesed to countless individuals and families,
all done without fanfare

*At Mishon we always say,
"FORTUNATE ARE THE PEOPLE WHO CROSS THE FRIEDLANDER'S PATH"*

May the Ribono Shel Olom shower you all with every brocha with a shefa.
No-one should ever need your services, but you should be able to give it easily and gezinterheit till moshiach comes

thank you

Dear Readers
In reply to cleaning silver using soda crystals:
The original way is to get a special aluminium plate and use that with soda crystals.

It can also be done by making a ball of aluminium foil (or you can probably use an aluminium tin). Put into sink, pour some soda crystals on, and right away a kettle full of boiling water. Then add hot sink water and some more soda.

When this is ready, you put the silver into the water and make sure at least one thing touches the aluminium and then everything touches something touching thus causing a chain reaction.

Leave for 30 seconds, sponge and soap it and rinse.
Hatzlocha.

C.F.
P.S. In a pinch, you can also use regular salt instead of soda crystals which is a great kosher l'Pesach way of cleaning silver.

Dear Readers
It has come to my attention that many children in our kehilla are not aware of the etiquette when it comes to knocking and ringing on peoples doorbells. As we all know many children like to go around collecting money and selling raffle tickets which is a lovely notion, raising much needed funds for our moisdos.

However there is no need to be knocking aggressively whilst ringing the doorbell at the same time continuously. I'm sure people can agree that sometimes we are forced to rush to the door, thinking it is an emergency or something important only to be greeted by children standing on our doorstep, offering us raffle tickets.

Please speak to your precious children and let them know how to politely knock on someone's door in a refined way.
E.H.

Dear Readers
My pretty little girl had molluscum on the side of her face that was very unpleasant.

I was advised to stick a fresh cut up square of a banana peel, using electric tape, on to the molluscum directly for 5 consecutive nights. It disappeared immediately.

Tried and tested miracle.

Dear Readers
I would like to make you aware of a fraud incident I have just been subject to.

After making a single online order from Temu I noticed on my bank statement that I was charged by them on 6 different transactions ranging between 25p and £19.37. I am in the middle of disputing this with my bank but would like to make you aware to check your statements and be cautious of who has your card details.
R.M.

Dear Readers
With Pesach approaching and the great mitzva of kimcha depischa please may I share my thoughts.

One of the recent means of tzedoka collection is to appoint one person on the street to distribute envelopes with the details of the tzedoka case and donation return envelope. The donation envelope will have that appointed person's address, so the neighbours are encouraged to post them back easily.

We all have our tzedoka budget and causes. Some of us support causes close at heart, some of us can afford to support all causes, some of us split our donations up to give all a little.

I find it very uncomfortable and out of place when the neighbour whose address is on the donation return envelope comes around personally to the door asking for the envelopes, or leaves messages asking for its return. We can all read our post. And of course we can all reach our neighbour's post box should we have the possibility to return the envelope.
A Kosheren Pesach.

מי כעמד ישראל!!
Thank you so much for coming to help us out in the middle of the night! Within 10 minutes after placing our call, you were there ready to help us. It didn't even matter that it was after 2:00am and you were probably itching to see your bed already, you were there with a smile, helping us till the very end!!
Thank you!

Dear Readers
I am writing to protest against the shops selling vapes.

One particular brand is packaged with bright colours to appeal to children and some local groceries even have it displayed behind the cashier at eye level.

We need to join together to protest this danger.

40 Days to her Shidduch

Raising Ruchy* was a challenge alright, given her complicated nature. Marrying her off proved to be an even greater challenge. Yet, although she had long since passed her twentieth birthday, we did not despair. There was someone out there waiting for her!

But as the weeks and months wore on, I must admit, I found myself feeling growing tense. It was time to actually do something.

I called Tehillim Kollel and chose a 40-day membership. "Daven for my Ruchy," I requested. "daven we should find a suitable shidduch – quickly."

Several weeks later, my cellphone rang. It was a Tehillim Kollel staff member calling to ask whether I was interested in continuing my membership. "The 40 days are over today," he explained.

"I'm a bit busy tonight," I replied, "please call me back tomorrow."

Indeed, that night, we hosted a L'chaim in our dining room. Ruchy was a glowing kallah! When Tehillim Kollel called again the following morning, I happily signed up for another round – an annual membership this time, for my daughter along with her new chosson.
