לכבוד ידידי תומכי תורה ואוהביה,
שלום וברכה עד בלי די
כל מי שמכיר החיים התורניים וחיי החרדים בעיר הבירה

גם משפיעים על חיי הציבור בכללו לעבוד את השם,
הכולל הוא תחת הנהגתו של בני הרב הגאון רבי יצחק
שליטי"א שמוסר נפשו על זה בהצלחה רבה
הכולל, נוסף לנדבות הציבור כל השנה, מכריז כעת על
מגבית רחבה יותר לקראת חודש ניסן הבא עלינו לטובה
ואבקש את ידידי בכל המקומות לזכות

IMPORTANT NOTICE

We are excited to announce some enhancements to our community services that we believe will greatly benefit our members. These changes are aimed at providing better support and assistance to address various needs within our community.

- Advanced Visa Services: We understand that dealing with long-term complex visa issues can be challenging and stressful. That's why we are introducing our new advanced visa system, led by our dedicated expert team. Our team will work tirelessly to assist individuals facing such challenges, helping them navigate the legal complexities and obtain the necessary visa status. We are committed to providing this service at a low cost fee to ensure accessibility to all JCC members.
- Road Closure Permits for Community Events: Organizing community events often requires road closures. We are pleased to announce that we have updated our system at the local authorities to facilitate road closure permits for community events. This service is now available to our community members free of charge, making it easier to organize and execute events seamlessly.
- Passport Renewal Reminder: As Pesach approaches, it's essential to check the expiry dates of your passports to avoid any disappointments or disruptions while traveling for Yomtov. We encourage everyone to ensure their passports are up to date well in advance to prevent any last-minute issues.

We believe that these enhancements to our community services will make a significant difference and provide valuable support to our community members. If you have any questions or require further information about these services, please feel free to reach out to us.

Thank you for your continued support, and we look forward to serving you better with these improved services.

THANK YOU

We are writing to express our heartfelt gratitude for the incredible response and swift action taken by the team at the JCC (Jewish Community Council) on Purim morning.

The unexpected traffic jam that occurred on the main road/junction in Stamford Hill due to temporary traffic lights installed by Thames Water for road works undoubtedly caused chaos and disruption, spoiling the Purim spirit for so many people, The situation left many families, particularly those with young children very frustrated.

However, thanks to the remarkable efforts of the JCC team, led by Reb Levi Schapiro, a resolution was swiftly achieved. The JCC worked tirelessly, engaging with Thames Water and TFL (Transport for London), to ensure the removal of the temporary traffic lights. This quick intervention allowed the community to enjoy a peaceful and enjoyable Purim celebration without further disruptions.

We would like to extend our deepest appreciation to the entire team at the JCC for their dedication, proactive approach, and effective communication in resolving this issue promptly. Their commitment to serving our community is truly commendable and has made a significant difference.

On behalf of all the families impacted by this incident, I want to express our gratitude for your efforts in ensuring a smooth and joyous Purim celebration.

Dear Readers

Regarding the letter about children knocking on doors too loudly and rather they should be more careful and knock softly, I am of the opposite opinion, as someone who is hard of hearing. BH these children knock properly and I would only encourage them to continue to do so.

It's not appropriate to discourage children from doing a mitzvah. Chas vesholom they would knock too softly and you would lose out the opportunity to do a mitzvah and give tzedakah.

I wish you Mazal to give more tzedakah, amen.

Y.G.

Dear Readers

In reply to the advice about covering molluscum with banana peel and duct tape, I would like to raise an awareness that children with eczema may NEVER wrap a molluscum with duct tape, plasters, bandages etc...

You can try all the creams and remedies on the molluscum itself, but please, never ever cover or wrap it, even if the eczema is on a different part of the body.

Hatzlocho!
R.G.

Dear Readers

As widely known (it's not a secret) Stamford Hill is very short in yeshivas and especially in yeshiva gedoilos which is causing many problems to the whole yeshiva system (besides that with fewer yeshivos they each get more applications and then they have more of what to pick).

However, 2 yeshiva gedoilos announced that they are closing this Pesach, no difference what the reason is that they want to close, we can for sure avoid this happening. We can't let them close, it's the responsibility of the entire kehilla to make sure that they don't close. Stamford Hill is BH so big and colourful with all organisations and businesses but NO YESHIVAS. We have to back them and support them to make sure they can continue with their avodas hakodash (as we're really in need of their Torah).

May Hashem help to continue with all yeshivas and as the population is growing the moisdos should also grow along.

A Kehilla Member

Dear Readers

With regard to the latest shadchan article in last week's Ami magazine, I don't know if there's another parnasa by us heimishe Yidden that is as abused as shadchunas.

Yes in every business people will approach and ask for naduvas. Sometimes even daily. Because Yidden are givers and we want to give and look out for each other. But shadchunas is next level abuse. WHEN a shadchan already does pull off a shidduch (after 2000 failed attempts) even then most people will bargain down or underpay!

I recently did a shidduch for a working boy that took the kishkas out of me (that in itself should be double pay!) The parents paid £1k because they don't have money! Try telling that to your doctor, plumber, electrician, cleaner, etc. The disrespect of the good hearted shadchunim who will not denier themselves to demand more is way out of hand. How about the working boy takes 2 months of his wages and pays the shadchan??

And then we wonder why there are so few shadchunim.

What a shame that we don't work harder to keep our shadchunim at it. A little foresight would probably produce more simchas.

P.S.H.

May we all get there, easily.
From a BURNT OFF Shadchan

Dear Readers

I read last week's letter with interest and agree with the writer that the highlight of our purim was going dressed up to our teachers' houses. I wonder whether readers can come up with an alternative to the current trend of celebrating 'purim' in school a few days before purim. This has some benefits as it makes purim less stressful. However, it definitely has drawbacks too, some of which were pointed out by last week's letter writer, such as how children expect to give way more shlach monos to friends, resulting in added expense and uptick in consumption of junk. Another point is that most children wear a different costume in school (for practical reasons – no one is risking the loss of parts of the costume, a rip or a stain on erev purim) and even the ones that do wear their costume are not allowed to wear the full gear – tights, make up etc. This leaves them feeling disappointed and somewhat cheated. Perhaps an alternative could be to have the teachers and kids to come to school on a designated hour on Purim or Shushan Purim. This would allow for the benefits of both.

M.M.

Dear B.Z.

Regarding your letter from a few weeks ago, how to manage making chasunah.

I believe the problem starts from Day 1 of our career in chinuch. If the mother wouldn't need fancy buggies and baby layette, and the daughter in Year 1 wouldn't need her school supplies replenished 3 times a year, she might have a different (correct?) set of priorities by the time it comes to her chasunah.

How the Ribnitzer Helped Yakov Find a Job

When the credit cards reached their limit and the grocery wouldn't extend any more credit, he understood something drastic had to happen.

Yakov* is a talented yungerman with a beautiful, growing family. Despite his abilities, he struggled to find a stable source of income that could cover his day-to-day budget.

Not long ago, he had a brainstorm: Ribnitz!

The heilige Ribnitzer Rebbe, zy"ta, brought so much shefa in his lifetime – surely he would intercede! What better investment could I make? Yakov thought to himself. The entire sefer Tehillim every day at the tzion where so many see yeshuos...

Unbelievable as it sounds, the wheels were already in motion the very next day! "I don't know exactly how it happened," Yaakov says, "but one day after Tehillim Kollel began mentioning my name at the Ribnitzer's tzion, I found a well-paying job!"

Yakov is no longer looking for employment, but he has one request: "Continue saying Tehillim for me every day in Ribnitz!" He wants to hold on to the siyatta d'Shmaya that brought him to this point, with the zechus of the tzaddik at his side for life.

*Name has been changed.
